

Embry-Riddle Asia Students

International Campuses and Locations

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University offers academic programs at multiple locations worldwide. While degree requirements are largely consistent across the University, certain academic regulations, course and degree offerings, or student services may vary by location in accordance with local regulations, policies and practices.

Students attending Embry-Riddle Asia should consult Enrollment & Campus Operations for location-specific information. Additional details are available on the Embry-Riddle Asia website and in the online campus catalog.