Student Enrollment Status and Credit Hour Load

Undergraduate Students

- A minimum of 12 credit hours during the fall or spring semesters constitutes full-time enrollment.
- For summer, 6 credit hours constitute full-time enrollment.

Fall and Spring Semesters

|                     |                    |
|---------------------|--------------------|
| Full-time           | 12 or more credits |
| Three-quarter time  | 9-11 credits       |
| Half-time           | 6-8 credits        |
| Less than half-time | 5 credits or less  |

Summer Sessions (A, B, and C)

|                     |                   |
|---------------------|-------------------|
| Full-time           | 6 or more credits |
| Three-quarter time  | 4-5 credits       |
| Half-time           | 3 credits         |
| Less than half-time | 2 credits or less |

Maximum Undergraduate Load

- The normal maximum undergraduate load for residential campus students is 16 credit hours during the fall and spring semesters; 9 credits during summer A, Summer B and Summer C sessions.
- Students may register for an overload for a maximum of 18 credit hours if they meet the following criteria:
  - Have completed at least 27 Embry-Riddle credit hours.
  - Have a cumulative Embry-Riddle GPA of 3.00 or higher.
  - Have received written approval from an academic advisor.
  - Additional approval from the department chair or designee may be required for overloads.

Tuition Implications

- Residential campus students registered for a maximum of 18 credit hours in a fall or spring semester may be eligible for block tuition rates with no additional charge, provided CGPA and credit completion requirements are met.
- Fall and Spring block tuition eligibility is recalculated at the end of the current semester for registered students, and adjustments may occur if CGPA or completed credits change.
- Summer semester: Courses are charged per credit hour.
