

Academic Standing

Worldwide & Online

Academic Warning

A Worldwide Campus student whose cumulative or term GPA falls below 2.00 will be placed on Academic Warning for up to two consecutive terms.

Academic Probation

After a second consecutive term on Academic Warning, a student whose cumulative or term GPA remains below 2.00 will be placed on Academic Probation for up to two consecutive terms.

Academic Suspension

After a second consecutive term on Academic Probation, a student whose cumulative or term GPA remains below 2.00 for an additional term will be academically suspended from the University.

When a change of grade or the conversion of the grade "I" changes a student's academic status, the previous academic status of warning, probation, or suspension is removed and does not become part of the student's permanent record.

All ERAU coursework taken at the undergraduate level applies to a student's CGPA, whether applicable to the current degree plan or not.

For students who have been academically suspended from the University, a written petition for readmission detailing the existence of any exceptional mitigating circumstances must accompany the application for readmission and fees. Suspended students are eligible to reapply for admission after completing a minimum of 15 semester hours of academic credit with a CGPA of 2.50 on a 4.00 scale or higher from an accredited degree-granting institution. A suspended student who wishes to be readmitted to another ERAU campus should apply for readmission to that campus through its Office of the Registrar or the equivalent office. Unless readmitted to the University, suspended students will not be permitted to take any further courses with the University. Student questions regarding next steps and/or reinstatement after a suspension should be directed to their academic advisor. Questions regarding the undergraduate suspension procedure should be directed to the Office of the Registrar, at worldwide.registrar@erau.edu.

Undergraduate students returning to the University on conditional-admission status who are placed on warning, probation, or suspension should speak with their academic advisor, who will work with the Office of the Registrar if status adjustments are necessary. A student on conditional-admission status who fails to satisfy the conditions of his/her admission may be suspended.

Undergraduate students on conditional-admission status should refer to the Undergraduate Conditional Admission section (<https://catalog.erau.edu/worldwide/admissions/undergraduate-conditional-admission/>) of the catalog for further information.

Dismissal for Cause

The University reserves the right to dismiss a student at any time and without further reason, if the student exhibits the following undesirable conduct:

- Actions that pose a risk to the health, safety, or property of members of the University community, including, but not limited to, other students, faculty, staff, administrative officers, or the student himself/herself.
- Conduct that disrupts the educational process of the University.
- Any other just cause.
