

Graduate Certificate in Leadership

Students will:

- Apply the proper leadership theories to real-world cases in a broad range of contexts to improve organizational outcomes.
- Evaluate different leadership perspectives within broad and diverse populations to address future organizational needs based on changing social, cultural, and organizational norms to include globalization.