

Accounting (ACCT)

ACCT 510 Business Accounting 1.5 Credit (1.5,0)

Accounting concepts for business managers; ethical decision-making; communication skills; accounting cycle; financial statements; accrual accounting.

Course Offered at: Worldwide, Asia

ACCT 517 Accounting for Decision Making 3 Credits (3,0)

Management's use of accounting information for planning, controlling, and evaluating operations; spreadsheets; budgeting; performance reports; cost management; CVP analysis; activity-based costing; decentralized operations; differential analysis; aviation focus.

Course Offered at: Daytona Beach

ACCT 599 Special Topics in Accounting 1-6 Credit (1-6,0)

Individual, independent, or directed studies of selected topics in accounting.

Course Offered at: Daytona Beach, Prescott, Worldwide

ACCT 699 Special Topics in Accounting 1-6 Credit (1-6,0)

Individual, independent, or directed studies of selected topics in accounting.

Course Offered at: Daytona Beach, Prescott

ACCT 715 Advanced Aviation Accounting 3 Credits (3,0)

Financial and managerial accounting concepts with application to the aviation industry; income statements, balance sheets, stockholders' equity, cash flows, leases, income taxes, profit planning, cost-volume-profit analysis, segment reporting, standard costs, and performance reports focused on aviation.

Course Offered at: Daytona Beach