

Specialized Academic Opportunities

Embry-Riddle Language Institute (ERLI)

The Embry-Riddle Language Institute is an intensive English program providing academic English language instruction to non-native speakers of English. ERLI offers six (6) starting points per year (2 in spring, 2 in summer, and 2 in fall). ERLI offers courses in Reading, Writing, Grammar, and Listening and Speaking, as well as special topics content courses such as Aviation and Aerospace, English for Visual Flight Rules, and Human Factors in Aviation. Students who meet all other University admission requirements can be granted full admission to the University pending successful completion of the program. Requirements for program completion are listed on the ERLI website. The ERLI Pathway program offers eligible students an opportunity to improve their English while earning credits toward their degree. All ERLI students enjoy the benefits of full ERAU student status with access to Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University facilities. Other benefits of our program include field trips and social events.
