

M.S. in Security and Intelligence

---

Students will:

- Mastery of clear and effective communication of ideas across all communication environments.
- Understanding of social science research methods.
- Work effectively in interdisciplinary teams to identify, research, and address pressing issues in security and intelligence.
- Possess a basic understanding of the requirements and strategies for managing and protecting assets in the public and private sectors.
- Possess a basic understanding of the requirements and strategies for providing public and private sectors with decision support and decision advantage.