

M.S. in Aviation Business Risk Management

The Aviation Business Risk Management program examines risk assessment and decision-making within aviation business environments. The curriculum focuses on identifying, analyzing and managing operational and organizational risks relevant to the aviation industry.