

Minor in Crisis, Risk, and Resilience Communication

The Minor in Crisis, Risk and Resilience Communication is a unique course of study that answers the demand for those who wish to explore the intersections between communication and safe and secure societies and industries. Students gain a strong foundation in communication for risk management, crisis response and fostering resilience in multidisciplinary contexts and vis-à-vis diverse audiences; effectively communicating across the phases of the national preparedness cycle; knowledge of important historical, legal and policy foundations of communication challenges and approaches in an all-hazards and whole-community context of civil security.

Some majors may not be eligible to pair with this minor. See the Minor Restrictions (<https://catalog.erau.edu/programs/undergraduate/minors/restrictions/>) list for details.
