

Graduate Conditional Admission

- Students who fail to satisfy the guidelines for full admission may be granted conditional admission under circumstances determined by the Admissions Office or Academic Standards and Admissions Committee (ASAC). A written petition for admission, current resume and other supporting documentation may be requested for consideration of admission.
- Students granted standard conditional admission due to academic deficiency will remain on conditional status until they have completed nine hours of graduate coursework. Any course(s) taken in this initial nine hours may not be repeated while on conditional status. During the conditional period, students must maintain a 3.0 CGPA, earning a grade of B or better in each course. Students who fail to achieve this minimum record will be dismissed in compliance with University policy. Exceptions will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.
- Students granted custom conditional admission may have individual terms outlined in their letter of admission. Students will remain on conditional status until they have satisfied the terms of their conditional admission.
- Students with conditional admission questions should contact their academic advisor.
