

Undergraduate Certificate in Aviation Maintenance Technology Part 65

Students will:

- Apply the fundamentals of airframe maintenance to demonstrate basic troubleshooting techniques.
- Apply the fundamentals of general aviation maintenance to recognize problems and recommend solutions.
- Apply the fundamentals of powerplant maintenance and knowledge of basic troubleshooting techniques to solve common powerplant systems problems.
- Demonstrate adequate preparation to take the FAA AP written, oral, and practical examination.