

B.S. in Aviation Safety

Students will:

- Identify the essential components of air transportation that impact aviation safety.
- Select, use and manage the tools, techniques and programs that promote and enhance aviation safety.
- Interpret safety-related data to make informed decisions and recommendations that enhance aviation safety.
- Explain the tenets of ethical responsibility as it applies to aviation safety.