

Master of Space Operations

Students will:

- Evaluate key elements within the space domain and its operational ecosystem.
- Apply STEM principles and theory necessary for conducting spaceflight operations.
- Create strategies for developing space capability and executing spaceflight missions.
- Demonstrate the requisite professional skills desired by large multinational agencies.