

Undergraduate Certificate in Uncrewed Systems Technology

Students will:

- Recognize the fundamentals of uncrewed systems and uncrewed systems operations.
- Identify different task requirements under varying operational circumstances in order to select appropriate solutions during mission planning and execution.
- Analyze a variety of managerial aspects to conduct different uncrewed systems applications.