

B.S. in Project Management

---

Students will:

- Perform generally accepted project management techniques to plan and execute projects.
- Apply analytical tools for problem solving and effective project decision making.
- Apply ethical behavior and communications skills within the project team environment.
- Analyze project metrics for the purpose of project reporting and control.