SCHOOL PERFORMANCE FACT SHEETS

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University provides School Performance Fact Sheets to prospective students on each of its degree and certificate offerings in accordance with regulations established by the California Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education. These Fact Sheets provide specific information for each of the degree programs offered to campus-based students at their respective locations. This information includes the number of students enrolled, number of degree completions, students' performance with respect to relevant, job placements within the career fields for which the program was designed, and wage and salary information that has been provided by local graduates.

Current and prospective students can access these Fact Sheets on <https://worldwide.erau.edu/locations/state-authorization/california-disclosures> at any time to see the most up-to-date information.

STUDENT RECORDS

Student transcripts and records are maintained indefinitely.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student who withdraws from a course either before the term begins or within the seven day add/drop period once the term begins will receive a refund of all money paid to the university, less the $50.00 application fee. If a student withdraws from a course after the seven day add/drop period had ended, the institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance. If a student wishes to withdraw from a course they need to contact their academic advisor in writing to initiate this process.

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

DISTANCE EDUCATION CANCELLATION POLICY

A student who withdraws from a course either before the term begins or within the add/drop period once the term begins will receive a refund of all money paid to the university, less the $50.00 application fee. If a student withdraws from a course after the add/drop period had ended, the institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance. If a student wishes to withdraw from a course they need to contact their academic advisor in writing to initiate this process.

For distance education students, cancellation is effective on the date written notice of the cancellation is sent. The Institution shall make the refund pursuant to section 71750. If the Institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the Institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of the materials. A student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to section 71750 before the first lesson and materials are received.
